

Rusthall A Picture Tells All

A photographic competition run by the Rusthall Village Association.

Open to all!

Details of how to enter at www.rusthallvillage.org

A Picture Tells All' photographic competition is being run by the Rusthall Village Association and is intended to be an opportunity for people to send in images of what Rusthall means to them, today. There is no restriction as to what or where the photographs are as long as they are taken in or of Rusthall!. They can be of people, places, animals, buildings, landscapes, wildlife, events etc.

Simply send in your photograph to our website manager Nigel Suckling nigel.suckling@virgin.net with your name, contact number, email, age (if under 15) and where and when the photograph was taken.

Alternatively you can leave a print with all your details behind the bar at the Red Lion in Lower Green. Pictures will be displayed on our website.

There will two categories - an under 15's and over 15's and there will be prizes for the winners and runners up in each category

Winning pictures will appear in the Kent and Sussex Courier

CLOSING DATE FOR ENTRIES
8 SEPTEMBER
2013
